

Y1: How has transport changed over time?

Subject Specific Vocabulary				Exciting Books
artefact	An object made by a human being that has historical interest.
transport	Something that helps people to travel e.g. a car or a bicycle.			Sticky Knowledge about travel in the past To know three ways that different types of transport have changed over time (trains, bicycles, planes, boats) To know that trains in the past used steam but trains today are electric To know that bicycles in the past did not have gears and now they do To know that planes in the past could not travel very far and now they can fly around the world To know that boats in the past had sails and used the wind to move but today they have engines To be able to compare changes in at least two types of transport technology	The use of knowledge to invent new devices or tools biplane	The first plane which was able to transport people.
penny farthing	An early type of bicycle with a large front wheel and small back wheel.
steam train	An early train which used steam power to run. It made travel cheaper and easier.
electricity	Electricity is a type of energy which is cheap and better for the environment.
gears	Gears allow you to pedal up a hill more easily and to travel further.
Wright Brothers	The Wright Brothers designed, built and flew the first biplane.						