What makes Brazil distinctive? Year 5 Knowledge Map

Subject Specific Vocabulary
agriculture	is another word for farming. It includes growing crops and raising animals.
renewable resources	is a resource of which there is an endless supply because it can be replenished e.g. the sun and the wind
Non renewable resources	is a natural resource that is used up faster than it can be made by nature e.g. oil, coal or natural gas economy	It's the way people spend money and the way people make money
trade	buying and selling of goods and services
exports	sending goods to sell in other countries
favela	name for several types of working-class neighborhoods in Brazil.

Brazil's Top Exports

Exciting Books

Sticky Knowledge

South America's biggest country is Brazil.

Brazil is the world's seventh largest economy.

Brazil's biggest exports: soybeans, crude petroleum, iron ore: meat (poultry and beef)

Brazil produces energy in different ways.
Brazil generates 84 % of its electricity from renewable resources (UK 35.9%)