Year 6: Dreams and Goals

Subject Specific Vocabulary
compliment	To say something nice about someone.
respect	To demonstrate high regard or special attention for someone or something empathy	Having an awareness of other's feelings or challenges.
demotivated	A lack of interest or enthusiasm about something
global	The world
admire	To look up to someone because you think they are really good at something or have done something kind or brave

Questions for family learning

- What are your learning strengths?
- What goal have you set at school?
- What goal have you set for home?
- How can I help you achieve your goals?
- What problems in the world are you worried about? Is there anything we can do to help?
- What do you think your classmates admire and like about you?
- What do you think your family admire and like about you?
- What do you admire about other people?
- Do you have any role models?

If you are worried about anything please speak to someone. You can speak to:

- Someone at home
- Your teacher at school
- Mrs Macartney our safeguarding teacher
- Put a note in one of the worry boxes in school
- If you don't feel you can speak to anyone here you can also phone Childline on 0800 1111

Sticky Knowledge

I split my goals into three small steps; I make a plan if I become demotivated.

There are organisations in the world that help to support others: the Gates Foundation, Oxfam and UNICEF.
They do this by providing aid and raising awareness for important causes.

Gates Foundation

OXFAM

unicef

It feels nice to give a compliment and receive a compliment.

