7th January 2024

Dear Parents and Carers,

I trust this letter finds you well and that you've enjoyed a rejuvenating Christmas break with your children, families, and friends. Looking back on last term, I want to express my gratitude for a fabulous end to 2023. The parental goodwill, cards, messages, and gifts were greatly appreciated by the staff and myself. Special thanks for simply being there and showing your tremendous support, especially at the wonderful Christmas concerts.

As we embark on the new year stretching out in front of us, 2024 holds great significance for both the world and, of course, Collis. It's the Year of the Dragon, symbolising good luck and power in the Chinese zodiac, which may come in useful.

In addition to being a leap year, we are entering a changing political landscape with elections sweeping across the planet. Incredibly, two billion adults will be voting across 50 countries, including the UK, USA, India, South Africa, and many more. Furthermore, it's an Olympic year, promising excitement and inspiration.

For Collis, the new year brings with it a sense of fresh promise and resolve, and I am confident that, together, we can make it another remarkable and successful one for the school and community.

Before it all starts again, may I extend my warmest wishes for a Happy and Healthy New Year 2024 to each and every one of you.

I look forward to seeing everyone on Tuesday, 9th January.

Best wishes,

KJ Hogston
